Federal Opportunities

Career Resource Network State Grants. The Department of Education announces funds to support the implementation of Statewide, systemic strategies for providing young people and adults with career information resources and the skills they need to make effective educational and career decisions. Only the State government agency appointed by the Governor (Mayor) is eligible. The deadline is June 12, 2000. Approximately $100,000 is available for the District of Columbia for the first year of this two-year grant. For more information, contact Dr. Marcel R. DuVall at (202) 260-4982. Also see www.ed.gov/news.html.

Early Hearing Detection and Intervention. The Centers for Disease Control announces funds to promote the implementation and integration of State-based surveillance and tracking systems for Early Hearing Detection and Intervention and other disorders detected by newborn screening. State health departments are eligible. The deadline is July 6, 2000. Up to nine awards will be made for $150,000 per year for up to five years. For more information, contact June Holstrum at (770) 488-7361 or jholstrum@cdc.gov. See www.cdc.gov.

Training Child Care Providers. The Department of Labor invites proposals for providing a credentialed career path for development of professional child care providers through the utilization of the National Registered Apprenticeship System. State Early Childhood Initiatives and State Apprenticeship Agencies are eligible. The deadline is July 12, 2000. Up to ten awards will be made for up to $350,000 each. Fax questions to Reda Harrison at (202) 219-8739 and include this SGA number (DFA 00-106). Also see www.doleta.gov.

District Opportunities

New: HIV Health Care and Support Services. The DC Department of Health solicits applications for programs to improve the quality, availability and organization of health care and support services to individuals with HIV and their families. Proposals should target the needs of African Americans and other ethnic minorities, substance abusers, adolescents, transgendered persons, incarcerated individuals, and women. The deadline is June 12, 2000. A total of $898,000 is available. The RFA is available from 717 14th Street, NW, 12th Floor, Washington, D.C. 20005. For information, call OGMD at 202-727-6537. Also see www.dccfo.com.

Still Open: Safe Summer 2000 Grants. The DC Weed & Seed announces a mini-grant program targeted at small summer programs that would be able to demonstrate increased service capacity from the $500 grants. Eligible organizations must have an annual budget of less than $300,000. Please fax your request for an application to (202) 898-4707, attention Monique Glasse, Program Manager.

Still Open: Comprehensive School Reform Demonstration Program. DC Public Schools, Office of Categorical Programs and Development solicits applications from District schools that seek to implement comprehensive school reform programs. By encouraging reform, the program aims to enable all children in the schools to meet content and student performance standards. All District public schools and charter schools are eligible. The deadline is May 25, 2000. Approximately $1,120,000 will be awarded in amounts of $70,000 each. The RFA is available from 717 14th Street, NW, 12th Floor, Washington, D.C. 20005. For information, call OGMD at 202-727-6537. Also see www.dccfo.com.

FUNDING ALERT

Still Open: Sexually Transmitted Disease Clinical Services. The DC Department of Health, Bureau of Sexually Transmitted Disease Control seeks applications for the provision of STD patient services during off-duty hours, specifically evenings and weekends. Programs that include screening, diagnosis and treatment, patient education, and referral services are encouraged. The deadline is May 29, 2000. $120,000 total will be awarded to two or three organizations. The RFA is available from 717 14th Street, NW, Suite 1200, Washington, DC 20005. Call (202) 727-6537.

Still Open: Adult Basic Education and Literacy. The University of the District of Columbia announces funds to make adult education and literacy activities available and accessible to adult residents in the District. Eligible applicants include nonprofits, charter and public schools, and community groups. The deadline is May 31, 2000. The RFA is available at OGMD, UDC, and the Department of Employment Services One Stop Center. For more information, call (202) 274-6649.

Foundation Opportunities

AIDS Services. The National Grants Program of the Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS provides support to grassroots, community-based organizations nationwide for direct services -- and, in a limited capacity, for other purposes -- to people living with HIV/AIDS. Organizations with an annual budget under $15 million are eligible to apply. The deadline is June 30, 2000. For more information, contact Tom Viola at (212) 840-0770 ext. 225. Also visit www.bcefa.org/about/grants.htm.

After School Programs for Youth and Children. The McKnight's Youth Enrichment Grantmaking Program seeks to finance out-of-school enrichment programs. Priority is given to programs that incorporate knowledge of child development, involve families and teachers, and focus on youth with limited access to enrichment programs. Applications are encouraged from small nonprofit organizations. The deadline for applications is June 1, 2000. For more information, contact (612) 333-4220 or info@mcknight.org. Also see www.mcknight.org.

Teaching Tolerance. The Southern Poverty Law Center is accepting applications for the teaching tolerance grants program for K-12 teachers who successfully integrate tolerance projects in their schools and communities. Proposals from community organizations and churches will also be considered if students are directly impacted. There is no deadline for proposals. Awards are for $2,000. For more information, see www.splcenter.org.

Internet Services Awards. The Ericsson Internet Community Awards will be granted to five nonprofits that demonstrate how the Internet can improve their services and/or strengthen the nonprofit field. Funds and equipment of up to $100,000 will be awarded to each recipient. The deadline is July 17, 2000. For more information, visit www.ericsson.com/erica.

Integrating Technology and Services. The Bell Atlantic Foundation supports projects in arts, education, health, and human services—particularly those that involve new communications technology. The foundation prefers to fund new initiatives and avoids controversial issues. There are no deadlines. Grant awards average about $10,000. For more information, call 1-800-360-7955 or visit www.bellatlanticfoundation.com.
